The court also slapped a fine of ₹20,000 on the accused Addala Nani, 28, a labourer, while the victim was awarded a compensation of ₹2 lakh. The case came to light on September 2, 2020 when her grandfather lodged a complaint saying she had left home and not returned. Based on her statement, the case was altered and Nani was booked and arrested under relevant provisions of the POCSO Act.

EAGLE flags portrayal of cannabis in upcoming film Ghaati

The Hindu Bureau
HYDERABAD

Telangana's anti narcotics bureau, EAGLE (Elite Action Group for Drug Law Enforcement) has raised objections over the trailer of the upcoming Telugu film Ghaati, starring Anushka Shetty, alleging that it depicts cannabis cultivation and trafficking in a manner that risks glorifying narcotics. The film has come under scrutiny for failing to include statutory warnings against drug abuse. In a statement issued on Thursday, the Bureau said the trailer appears to revolve around the cultivation, transportation and consumption of marijuana, without cautionary messages or disclaimers. Officials noted that such portrayals could influence students and young viewers at a time when the government is intensifying efforts to curb drug abuse.

Citing the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act, 1985, the Bureau reminded that cultivation, production, possession, sale, purchase, transportation and consumption of narcotics are strictly prohibited, along with any abetment or conspiracy to commit such offences under Section 29 of the Act.

"Motion pictures, owing to their immersive nature and appeal, carry a profound impact on public perception. Films must therefore be treated with greater responsibility," the statement read.

HYDERABAD

A 36-year-old man from Prakasam district of Andhra Pradesh killed his three children by setting them ablaze before taking his own life at Uppanuthala mandal in Nagarkurnool district of Telangana. Police said that domestic disputes appear to have led to the killings.

The deceased was identified as Gutta Venkateswarlu, a fertilizer shop owner. He was married to Deepika and the couple had three children, aged , 8, 6, and 4. TG's expenditure on pensions and salary bills mounting

The amount is set to exceed Telangana 2025-26 budget estimates; same is the case with payment of interest which reached ₹9,355 crore

M. Rajeev
HYDERABAD

The burden on the Telangana's exchequer on account of payment of pensions is mounting with revenue receipts not keeping pace.

The State government has incurred an expenditure of ₹6,149 crore for payment of pensions till end of July, 46.91% of the ₹13,109 crore projected for the current fiscal (2025-26) in the budget estimates. The government on an average is incurring expenditure in excess of ₹1,500 crore every month as indicated by the provisional figures submitted to the Comptroller and Auditor General of India. Coupled with this is the spending on account of salaries & wages and interest which has been rising.

The budget estimates pegged an amount of ₹44,478 crore towards payment of salaries & wages for the current fiscal and the government had already incurred ₹15,961 crore by July end indicating that the expenditure overall is likely to exceed the projections at the end of the fiscal. The same is the case with payment of interest which reached ₹9,355 crore, 48.3% of the ₹19,369 crore projected in the budget estimates.

Overall revenue

The progress on the revenue earning front continues to be slow going by the figures. The overall revenue receipts for the fiscal are estimated at ₹2.84 lakh crore of which the Government realised ₹74,955 crore till July end, just 26.32% of the estimates with eight months to go. A major chunk of this ₹24,669 crore has been through borrowings and other liabilities.

Tax revenues during the first four month period stood at ₹48,145 crore, 27.46% of the ₹1.75 lakh crore of the budget estimates. Revenue through State's share of union taxes, goods and services tax, stamps and registrations and sales tax was above 25% till July end. Accruals in the form of non tax revenue, grants in aid and contributions continue to be poor at ₹1,334 crore (4.22%) and ₹790 crore (3.47%) respectively.

Revenue deficit at the end of the four month period was ₹12,564 crore against ₹2,738 crore surplus of the budget estimates and fiscal deficit was ₹24,669 crore.

Peddlers using dating app to sell drugs held

The Hindu Bureau
HYDERABAD

Two drug peddlers operating a racket through Grindr dating app were nabbed along with seven consumers in a joint operation by Hyderabad police at Seethaphalmandi, Secunderabad. The Chilkalguda police, along with the East Zone Task Force, seized 100 grams of MDMA, 10 mobile phones, and a weighing machine, all valued at around ₹15 lakh.

Police said the main accused, M. Ramakanth alias Kiran, 44, an office assistant residing in Chilkalguda and native of Kurnool, had been involved in drug peddling for past two years. He allegedly sourced MDMA from a Nigerian national in Bangalore and sold it at inflated rates with the help of his associate, Mudavath Prasad, 30.

Based on credible information, police raided Ramakanth's flat at Sithaphalmandi and apprehended the duo. On their lead, seven consumers were also detained.
